accountability™

Crucial Accountability showed management how to stop avoiding conflict and helped them recognize that holding others accountable is healthy.

Ardie Harrison,
Vice President of Human Resources, Dallas Housing Authority

IMPROVE ACCOUNTABILITY, EXECUTION, AND PERFORMANCE

Why Crucial Accountability?

A culture with weak accountability is one where those who see problems say nothing because they assume they don't have the authority or skills to raise a concern. Our research shows when people see accountability as "someone else's job" they waste time, resources, and morale—specifically, employees waste $1,500 and an eight-hour workday for every accountability discussion they avoid. These costs skyrocket when you consider that 95 percent of a company's workforce struggles to hold their colleagues accountable.

The Crucial Accountability™ Course

This two-day course teaches a straightforward, step-by-step process for identifying and resolving performance gaps, strengthening accountability, eliminating inconsistency, and reducing resentment. It uses video, group discussions, skill practice, and real-life application to make the course both entertaining and engaging.

Organizational Benefits of Crucial Accountability

Organizations around the world have turned to Crucial Accountability to improve bottom-line results like quality, efficiency, satisfaction, safety, etc. Results include:

Teamwork & Relationships: Dallas Housing Authority eliminated silos between departments and helped employees resolve conflicts with peers and supervisors.

Efficiency: San Antonio School District saw a 50 percent drop in grievances that previously clogged their administrative system.

Safety: Pride International improved their total incident rate by 55 percent and reported zero accidents that required employees to miss time on the job.

Employee Turnover: Orkin saw an 8 percent decrease in turnover, and Pride International decreased turnover by 40 percent.
